A HISTORY of the PEPLUMS

part one

"Where do you want the log missing?" asks Dan Vadis in Rebel Gladiators.

Selma Gerson, L. J. and L. J. G. Gerson in the same role.

Bottom: Joe Robinson, Jr. and to disfigure the nose of a gladiator. Sorry Joe we know it's a lie.

THE FILMS OF LON CHANEY Jr.

EVEN A MAN WHO IS PURE AT HEART
AND SAYS HIS PRAYERS BY NIGHT,
MAY BECOME LON CHANEY
WHEN THE WOLFENBLOOMS
AND THE MOON IS FULL AND BRIGHT.

Born on the tenth of February 1884, Lon Chaney Jr was only saved by his quick-thinking father dunking him into a handy, frozen river.

...Great publicity for Lon Jr, a chilly reception for his son...that is always amazing that you believe the story. I'm an sceptical about that one as I am about the later ones of Chaney Jr whipping his lad whilst forcing him to count the lashes.

I can't explain why I like Junior, if I were more than generous, I could only call him a seductive actor.

Most contemporary accounts tell us he was a harsh overbearing, drunken bully who could only be relied on to work in the mornings, being too overcome by the constant sedging from his ever-present hip-flask to survive any of the afternoons.

There are also suggestions that he was homosexual -Director Curt Siodmak

..Though he raised children and was married to a very understanding wife, Lon was sexually confused, he could not adjust to a sexual preference he was unable to accept. Chaney was probably missing the whip!

Given all these problems, Lon still managed to carve a niche for himself in film history maybe not as an actor, but certainly as a man.

The film Death On The Nile is based on the novel by Agatha Christie and tells the story of the murder of a woman on a cruise ship. The film is a classic example of the Christie style, with a complex plot and a large cast of characters. The film is set in Egypt and features a number of exotic locations. Dear Mr. [Name]

Thank you very much for the letter. The letter of August 19th. I am glad to hear that you are going to the gorilla. I am glad to hear that you are going to the gorilla. I am glad to hear that you are going to the gorilla.

When you visited the gorilla in the gorilla report you sent me, I was glad to hear that you were going to the gorilla. I was glad to hear that you were going to the gorilla. I was glad to hear that you were going to the gorilla.

Master of a Thousand Moods!
See him go his terror against Japan's oppression again in this U.S.A.

THE REASON why Bela Lugosi is the most popular actor in the world today is that he is a master of a thousand moods. He can be as terrifying as a demon, or as charming as a gentleman. In "Black Dragons," he plays a man who is forced to confront the most terrifying of all horrors. The picture is a masterpiece of suspense and terror, and it is one that should not be missed.

"I only wish you could see me when I was in 'Black Dragons'! Now I've worked in a story so thrilling and blood-shedding that I'm sure you'll be hooked!"

Say: Bela Lugosi

Watch out, as every scene in the picture is a masterpiece of terror and suspense. The picture is a true masterpiece of the horror genre, and one that should not be missed.
